

Talk It Over

McLane at the Movies

Week #3 - Christopher Robin

July 20 & 21, 2019

Introduction

Life demands our attention and, more often than not, our schedules are packed full of “very important things”. It’s often difficult to put God first as Jesus instructed his followers in Matthew 6:33. Let’s talk through how we can encourage each other in this challenge.

Warm-up Question

If you had a 4-hour block of “nothing to do”, how would you spend your time?

Discussion questions

1. When you observe nature: the beauty of a flower, the birds feeding their young, the squirrels and chipmunks scurrying around eating nuts and pinecones, what comes to your mind as it relates to God’s provision?
2. Read Matthew 6:25-34.
 - As you read this passage, what most resonates with you and why?
 - What does this passage say about God and his care for you?
 - What is Jesus asking of us in this passage?

Application

- How can we as individuals seek God first in our daily lives?
- Name a spiritual practice that keeps you close to God on a daily basis.
- Name a spiritual practice you want to improve.
- What do you need to set aside in your life in order to put God first?
- What one lifestyle change can you make this week to put God first?

Moving Forward

- Pray for each other specifically regarding the one step each person shared.
- Scripture memory challenge: Matthew 6:33 and Philippians 4:6-7
